9) I remember Mr Secretary having mentioned to me while in Comptroller's office at Budget time that the needful provision maybe found out of the lump addition of 20 lakhs under 17 miscellaneous on account of Grain Compensation & Special Allowance. But the cost of the High Prices allowance now sanctioned with effect from 1-7-20 exceeds the provision and no amount seems therefore available out of this lump sum grant.

(10) There is however a very large provision in the Budget under the same major head on account of purchase and repairs of tents viz Rs 50,000. The amount required for the grant of the local & maldar allowances estimated at 35,000 maybe reappropriated out of this grant and the expense on tents limited to Rs 15,000 only during the current year. If this can be done effect may be given to the order from 1-7-20 as originally intended.

In G.O. of 24th March 20 uniform rates of Mahmad & Semi-mahmad allies were sanctioned to officials of all Depts. on pay not exceeding Rs. 100, and it was ordered that the effect would be given to this as soon as funds permitted, provision being made in the current year's budget if possible. When the question of making provision for this was subd. to Council along with certain other items, it was ordered that "no action is necessary"

In the meanwhile, the Civil Vety. Dept. seems to have been misguided by this order, and have drawn the Semi-mahmad allies, which later on has been objected to. They have accordingly been called upon to refund the allies drawn by them.

The Rev. Comm. therefore requests that effect may be given to the order early; a similar reference has been received from the Spl. Office,

In para 11 of the order dated 24th March 1920 ^X sanction was accorded to grant to officials and menials of all departments -- on pay not exceeding Rs100 -- stationed in ~~xxxx~~ malnad and other special localities, local allowances at the uniform rates -- recommended by the Committee. The sanction was subject to the proviso that it was to be given effect as soon as funds were made available. In view of the nature of the relief which it was intended to afford and also ~~xx~~ of the long felt necessity ~~xx~~ of treating all departments alike, the intention was that the order should be given effect to from the current official year and that provision should be included in the budget of that year. No separate provision was however made in the budget and I think the intention was that the cost of the measure should be met from the total grant of about 20 lakhs allowed for high prices allowance. No orders have yet been issued for giving formal effect to the sanction and in the meantime the Veterinary Department has drawn the allowance and the Comptroller has placed it under objection.

The extra expenditure involved by the grant of the allowance is calculated at Rs33,000 ^{per annum} and it cannot be met from the grant for the high prices -- allowance as this grant has been found insufficient.

for that allowance itself. It may, however, be met from the provision of Rs50,000 made for "Purchase and Repair of Tents". The Prince of Wales visit has been postponed and the need for purchasing a large number of tents is not likely to be urgent. The expenditure on the "Purchase and Repair of Tents" may be limited to the balance of Rs17,000/-.

The sanction may be given effect to from the 1st of October 1920. In one or two cases in which the allowances have been drawn under a misapprehension no retrenchment need be enforced.

What tracts should be treated as malnad and semi malnad is a point still under ~~xxxxxx~~ correspondence with the Revenue and the Public Works Departments. For the purpose of giving effect to the order, the present arrangement under which some areas are treated as malnad and others as semi malnad may be followed as far provided for in para 13 of the order.
